PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good news

Good afternoon, everyone.

It's nice to see you all today. I'd like to share updates on some recent activities and initiatives: Good news, Gift of Life International and Heart Gift have made funds available for our Gift of Life project. Chairman Lemarc has asked Cynthia to coordinate with Jaden and Friends and Dra. Go to line up 40 children for PDA procedures and 10 children for surgical cases. These should be completed by the end of the year, with the possibility of taking on additional cases as needed. As of this week, we have already done 101 procedures for our Gift of life project.

Last Saturday, October 25, RCMW hosted the 1st Serve Above Self Pickleball Tournament at The Zone in Makati. The proceeds from this event will benefit RCMW's Breast, Cervical, and Prostate Cancer Screening Program. The tournament was a success, and I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to PDG Jay Tambunting, Dodie Poblete, Jeff Dytuco, Sps Paz Balayan, Sps Trina Reyes, Sps Julienne Vital, the RCMW Secretariat led by Kai, and to our Rotaractors for their outstanding effort and commitment in making this event possible. Thank you once again, and congratulations to everyone on a job well done!

In line with our collaboration with RC Manila and RC Makati, last week, President Eddie Galvez (RC Makati), President Raoul Creencia (RC Manila), and I visited Tukod Elementary School in San Rafael, Bulacan. The purpose of our visit was to explore how we could support the school in establishing a library to enhance students' reading and comprehension skills, as well as to set up a handwashing station to promote sanitation and hygiene. We requested the school principal to provide a detailed list of their needs and a cost estimate for the proposed project for our review and approval. We also offered our assistance in designing the library space and acquiring necessary furniture and equipment. We hope this will be the first of many joint projects we undertake together.

Further, six of our members attended the RC Manila Oktoberfest celebration, where IPP Dax proposed the idea of having RC Manila co-host a golf tournament with us in March 2026 to raise funds for our various projects. The proposal was well-received, and we will soon begin planning the event together. The other goal of the tournament is to also to engage non-Rotarians, introduce them to Rotary, and encourage them to become members.

Lastly, on October 24 (Friday), the Rotaract Club of Makati West held their Induction Ceremony! They now have 58 members in their roster. Some of us were able to attend the event to welcome the new members and congratulate the officers. We look forward to another good year for them.
