PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

ALASDAIR J.W THOMSON
President, RY 2020 - 2021

Men of Action!,

Congratulations should also go this week to PRID Guiller, who led a highly informative Town Hall meeting on how best to encourage the public to take up the opportunity for Covid vaccinations as they arrive. I was shocked to learn that in surveys as few as 16% of respondents said they would volunteer to be vaccinated. Even among the older populations the number was worryingly low. So kudos to PRID for spearheading this initiative and let's support that where we can!

On the Covid-related front, may we continue to ask for your prayers and support for our very own Kai, who is in quarantine isolation with her brother and Lola, and for our Charter Member Tonette Guererro and his wife Consuelito, both of whom are in the ICU as a result of the virus.

Elsewhere in Rotary World this week, we have been very fortunate to agree funding from Governor Cha Cha that will ensure PE Franco has a war chest for Gift of Life during his term. We will have received over US$57 thousand in DDF funding through our Governor this year, for which I am sure we are all hugely grateful. Please join me in showing our thanks and support in return by participating in the Casino Royale online event this Thursday after our meeting (details later in WSS) and by bidding in the Auction. All proceeds go to The Rotary Foundation, and half of them will come back directly to our District under the term of our own DGND Jay. One of the auction prizes is a sunset cruise with drinks around Manila Bay, which I hope is something we will be able to enjoy again in the not too distant future. Let's Pony Up for that one!

I'm delighted that we have Clair Barberis speaking at our meeting this week. I first saw her playing rugby, and if she runs her Bamboo Island resort the way she ran rings around her opposition then it must be a first class destination. I know Clair has a surprise for us on Thursday so make sure not to miss out!

Looking ahead, please join us for our first Fireside Chat in a while this Friday and share your stories of risk and near misses! Then again join us next week to learn how to "Never Miss a Good Crisis" and make sure to attend next Thursday's meeting with the Spanish Ambassador to hear about how a short sailing trip 500 years ago led to us all being as we are today.

Finally, I learned a good lesson last week that I feel I should share with you all to save you from some unnecessary pain. It was early evening and I was about to go and sit by the pool with a cold beer and watch the sun go down, when I told myself that was exactly why I've put on 20 pounds over the last year and so resolved to go for a run instead. Thirty minutes later and I was calling the driver to pick me up as I had injured my knee on a steep downhill section. If you remember nothing else from this week's message, please just remember this: if you have a choice, and one of them is to sit quietly and drink a beer by the pool, THAT IS THE ONLY ONE YOU SHOULD TAKE!!!

Wishing you a great week ahead,

Yours in Zest,
Alasdair Thomson

The word for this week is:

NED n. (deriv. adj. “neddy”)

NEDs (non-educated delinquents) first became apparent in Glasgow in the 1980s, wearing the ubiquitous uniform of the “shell suit”, though it soon became evident they lived all over the country when they began to emerge in their colourful nylon en masse.

What we are talking about here is a general lay-about. In the Philippines they would be the youthful “stambay” guys. Not the older ones with the t-shirt lifted over the beer belly, but the ones aspiring to that, the ones still with the energy to hustle a bit for some change.

In England they have a similar beast called a “Chav”.

Scottish Heritage

Bells

As a blended whisky, Bells doesn't have its own distillery per se, but has a mixing and bottling plant in Glasgow. The brand and the blend date back to the mid 19th century and today Bells is the biggest selling whisky in the UK. In Scotland it seems to me to be more prevalent on the East coast.

The principal expression available globally is Bell's Original, which comprises up to 40 different malt and grain whiskies. The 'heart malt' of Bell's is Blair Athol, while the Speyside malt of Dufftown and the Lowlander Glenkinchie help to shape the blend's character, along with a quantity of Caol Ila from Islay, which adds a touch of island influence.

In the 1920s they introduced ceramic decanters for special occasions, and bell shaped ones in the 1930s. I use to have one of them but have no idea what happened to it!! Probably lost in a house move...

Tasting Note by The Chaps at Master of Malt (12y)

Nose: Quite soft and gentle. Malted barley and hints of cut herbs and a fresh floral note. Cereal and grist with a little honey.

Palate: Quite smooth, medium body. Barley and cereals with nut oils, hints of wood and spice.

Finish: Short with notes of fruitcake and smoke.
