PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

ALASDAIR J.W THOMSON
President, RY 2020 - 2021

Men and Ladies of Action!

I hope you enjoyed last week's insights from Henry Motte-Muñoz. He certainly enjoyed addressing the club, and wrote to me afterwards to express his pleasure at finding such an engaged audience: "I really, really enjoyed the format, and the audience was engaged and clearly decision makers who care about the youth".

He may have been drinking heavily before lunch. Who knows?!

I am delighted this week that we are hosting our first Ladies' Day of the year. We all know the strength and balance that our partners bring to our lives and to the life of RCMW, so it is always a pleasure to be reminded of that fact when they take charge of our meeting on occasion. I hope it is something we can do more of this year, so please pass advance warning to your Boss that the gentle tap on the shoulder will be coming at some point over the coming months.

By popular request from the Ladies, our guest this week is Mr Nico Bolzico. I've known Nico since I first had the pleasure of coaching him in the UFL some years back. You learn a lot about people when you coach them, and Nico from the outset was one of the hardest working, most honest and dedicated players I ever worked with. He carries those traits in a varied and highly successful professional career, though they are often overshadowed by his more talented pet tortoise. Rumour has it that he models his abs on my own.

In this week's Scotch corner, I've rather indulgently plugged one of the whiskies from the fair isle where my parents live. It may not be the best Scotch in Scotland, but it reminds me of home and that is often a good enough excuse to open a bottle. I hope at some point to have the opportunity to host some of you at the distillery itself.

I'll stop here before I am accused of "havering" more than usual.

Wishing you all a great meeting and a fruitful week,

Yours in Zest,
Alasdair Thomson

Today's word is:

“Haver” (Hei-ver)

Talking nonsense. Also, “Havers!” (Nonsense!).
Typically used in the phrase, “Whit are ye havoring about?”
or “Stop yer havoring!”

Made famous in the line from The Proclaimers “500 Miles”:
“And if I haver, yeah I know I’m gonna be, I’m gonna be the man who’s havoring to you”

Scottish Heritage

Arran Robert Burns (10 yrs) (pronounced ‘Ar-RAN’)

From one of Scotland’s newest distilleries, on the island where President Al’s parents live. There used to be over 50 illicit stills on the island in the late 18th century, but the taxman shut them down. So when the Arran Distillery opened in 1995, it filled a gap of over a hundred years.

The Robert Burns is made in homage to the Scottish National Bard, himself an excise man at one point. It is, in your President’s own words, “very good value”. Matured in bourbon barrels, which gives it a hint of sweetness.

Tasting Note by The Chaps at Master of Malt

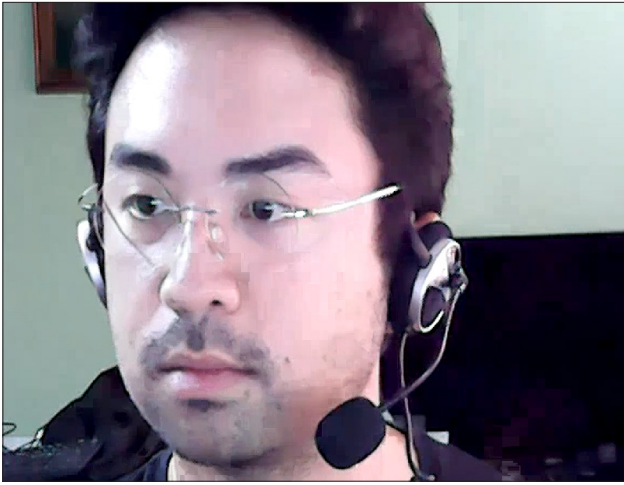

Nose: Apple peels, a little pear juice, hints of coconut and apple blossom. Develops with custard and cinnamon.

Palate: Fruity and rich, vanilla, pannacotta, apple and lime peel.

Finish: Apple strudel and cinnamon on the finish.

ABOUT THE GUEST SPEAKER

"We came here with a vision of efficiency; of making agriculture commercially viable, to make it better. But that's not a vision, that's an objective.

The vision must be about helping people."
